Today's Program

Heifer International - Eric Meyer, D.V.M.(ret.) describes this unique charitable organization and its global impact.

Last week's program

Last week, we had the pleasure of hearing about Local Heroes in Winchester, 2000-2010. Bernard J. Lewis, talked about his new book that was released on March 23, 2011. Dr. Lewis shared stories of the selection process and behind the scenes stories of the heroes featured in the book. Many of our own Rotary members were talked about and are featured in his book, along with individuals in the community who have made an impact on the local Winchester area. While you can read the details about each individual in the book, Dr. Lewis was able to share his viewpoints on his conversation with each person as he collected data. The Rotarians selected as Local Heroes, were Sharon Gromling, Mike Foreman, Karen Schultz, Terri Sinclair, and James Davis, and a Rotarian by default, the one who keeps John Lewis organized, his wife Marjorie. Congrats to all!!

April 7th Drawing

Steve Straight was the lucky winner last week, receiving $16 from our weekly drawing. Steve drew the 5 of spades which prevented him from taking home the jackpot. The jackpot today is $104. TRY YOUR LUCK TODAY!!

5K Run for Polio - a Success!

Don Butler reports the April 9th, 2011 event raised close to $1400 to go toward our Polio Plus commitment this year. Many thanks to our sponsors, volunteers, and runners for making this event a success. Race director Chris Northrup and Shenandoah Valley Runner's Club stated that 69 runners/walkers finished the new 3.1 mile course while 12-15 entered the Kid's Run. Medal winners included Jonathan Brown who placed 2nd in his age group and 1st in the Rabbi Division. Bagels and donuts provided by HandyMart were enjoyed by all!

HURRY, IT'S FILLING FAST!

Jim Laidlaw reports the NYC trip plans are well underway. The bus is almost filled with Rotary members, friends & family who want to have a special New York weekend! The total estimate for 2 nights room, bus, bellman, snacks and tickets to the Cirque du Soliel is $1075 - $1100 per couple. NOTE CHANGE: A deposit of $400 per couple will be due April 21, 2011.

ROTARY SUPPORTS OUR TROOPS

Please take a moment as you reflect upon the 150 year history of the Civil War anniversary this week, and pay a special thanks to the troops still fighting for our freedom. Dick Kent has taken on the project of collecting for our Troops Care Packages. Please see Dick about how you can help.

You can make a difference in a soldier's day. Thanks to your generosity, last week we collected $115.

Test your Civil War knowledge

What Union Regiment had the highest number of officers killed in the Civil War?

What primary Confederate General was killed at the Battle of Shiloh?

How many cannon in a Union Battery? A Confederate Battery?

What was the name of the play President Lincoln attended at Ford's Theater on April 14, 1865?

How many Confederates won the Congressional Medal of Honor?

Kelly will give us the answers...in next week's newsletter
