Rummage Sale Proceeds

Rummage Sale Co-Chairmen Robert Frogale and Marie DiLorenzo presented the proceeds of the Rummage Sale ($10,300) to Jane Baucknect of The Adult Care Center. The people at the center were absolutely thrilled and even wrote a poem of thanks. The money will go towards new furniture.

Our Last Program

Rotarian Mike Foreman presented a 10 minute overview of the last 90 years of history and events that helped make the Rotary Club of Winchester the strong community club it is today. If you missed last week's meeting, sorry but there's not a chance we could put all the highlights in the Cogwheel and certainly the words won't be deliverable with the same level of humor and passion as only Mike can deliver them. Last Week's Drawing

Bob DeMott did it again! Bob was the lucky winner of last week's drawing. Unfortunately, he drew the 7 of clubs and did not bring home the big winnings! As a two time winner of our drawing in just a few short weeks, will he get lucky again? The jackpot grew a little richer by $19. Today's jackpot total is $411 for some lucky Rotarian.

ROTARY SUPPORTS OUR TROOPS

Dick Kent will be collecting for our troops care packages today. Show your appreciation for our troops - even the smallest donation will help.

SCHOOLS OUT!

Congratulations to Patty Taylor and John Lathrop on their retirements from years of dedicated leadership in our local schools.

Thank you for your service to the many students who will be better community leaders because of the role models you both have been over the years! May you now know the true meaning of SCHOOLS OUT!!!

Our 2011-2012 Rotary Theme: Reach Within to Embrace Humanity

RI President-elect Kalyan Banerjee asked Rotarians to Reach Within to Embrace Humanity during the 2011-12 Rotary year.

He urged Rotarians to harness their inner resolve and strength to achieve success in Rotary.

"In order to achieve anything in this world, a person has to use all the resources he can draw on. And the only place to start is with ourselves and within ourselves," Banerjee said.

Once Rotarians find their inner strength, he continued, they can accomplish great things in their communities and around the world.

"Discover yourself, develop the strengths within you, and then unhesitatingly, unflinchingly, go forth and encircle the world, to embrace humanity," he said.

Banerjee emphasized the family as a starting point in serving others. "The communities we live in are not built of individual people but of families -- families living in homes together, sharing their lives and their resources and their common destinies. Good families lead to good neighborhoods, and good neighborhoods build good communities."

Rotarians can focus on projects that support families, such as those that provide safe housing or improve maternal and child health, he said.

Continuity in Rotary's work, including polio eradication, is also important, Banerjee said. "There are so many things we are indeed good at: working for clean, safe water; spreading literacy; working in so many ways with the New Generations, our youth, in our newest Avenue of Service and assisting them to become the leaders of tomorrow."

Citing Mahatma Gandhi's call to "be the change you wish to see in the world," Banerjee said Rotarians should also focus on change. "If we wish for peace, we start by living in peace ourselves, in our homes and in our communities," he explained. "If we wish environmental degradation to stop, if we wish to reduce child mortality or to prevent hunger, we must be the instrument of that change -- and recognize that it must start within us, with each of us."
