Today's Program

Amy Ohm of TreatmentDiaries.com

Treatment Diaries is a social network for people who are living with or caring for someone with a chronic illness. This online community is a supportive sounding board; they share your experiences, they offer advice ... they care.

Interact Project

Today we welcome Handley High School Interact Vice President Eliz Urtz who will be telling us about her experience at the Shenandoah University Leadership by Design Camp and the resulting service project for Fremont Street Nursery. Please have your wallets and your generosity open and ready.

Seriously!! – we need some more reporters for the Cogwheel. Honestly, Sue does all the hard work, formatting, putting in the photos, etc. All the reporters have to do is come to the meeting and listen and record what is going on. Then just type it up and send to Sue. She does everything else.

We have four reporters now – so that means three times a year we're assigned a month to be "Ace Reporter". Now, with a club of 180+ members, we should be able to get a couple more aspiring writers – PLEASE!!

Do you make a mean chili or know someone who does?

We Need Chili Chefs!

This year we are adding a Chili Cook-Off to the fun and games at our Apple Harvest Arts and Crafts Festival. This is a "People's Choice" contest, and will be from 1-5 p.m. on Saturday, the 17th of September. Chili of all shapes, sizes and colors are welcome, so if you do Chili, do it for a good cause. For more information, contact Dave Urso or Bill Hottel.

Family Picnic

Once again, the Family Picnic Committee outdid themselves with fabulous tasting food and PERFECT weather. My, my it doesn't get any better than this – delicious BBQ chicken, corn on the cob, baked potatoes, fresh off the vine tomatoes, rolls, sweet, juicy peaches, cupcakes and Garber's (specially made for Rotary) peach ice cream for dessert. Thanks to all those who made our family event so special. And to those who didn't come, you truly missed a great evening of food, fun and fellowship!

Yes, even if all you can do is boil water or juggle....you can be part of our Family Picnic pit crew!

August 4th's Program

Jason Wright, NY Times Best Selling author, spoke to our club not about his seven books or his current best seller, The 17 Second Miracle, but rather about the key to happiness. The life lesson that he learned from his dad is that service is the expectation and is ahead of anything else we do. We don't need thanks or recognition, for the key to happiness is our own Rotary motto, Service Above Self.

Thank you Shaffer's!

Shaffer's out-did themselves for our last lunch in the park with their artistic veggie platter....it really was as good as it looked!

Foundation Moment

Gary announced that we are looking for a couple applicants our club can sponsor for the Peace Scholarship – a 2 year program in one of 7 universities around the world. The person must be interested in furthering their education in peace and conflict resolution. Please contact Gary if you know of someone who would be interested in applying.

Welcome Jeff

Jeff Dodd is our newest member. He is sponsored by Ajay Virmani and Ed White. Be sure to say hello and get to know him!

Club Health Report

Libba Pendleton reported that we need to keep Jim Stillwell and Tom Malcolm in our prayers for speedy recoveries.

WE NEED YOUR HELP!

Mark your calendars now for the 37th Annual Rotary Arts and Crafts Festival, to be held on Saturday and Sunday, September 17-18. This event is considered an all hands on deck event. We're not asking for money...just a bit of your time. Every club member should help out in some way -- WE NEED PEOPLE TO WORK AT SET-UP, PARKING, GATES and the APPLE THEME BOOTH -- contact Bill Hottel at 662-1683 or sign up on the sheets being passed around at our meetings. An estimated 6,000 people attend this event yearly. The funds generated are used throughout the year for various donations. Last year, we raised over $20,000 for local charities.

Our Arts & Crafts Festival is constantly evolving...several years ago we added a Virginia Marketplace and the Kids Zone complete with inflatables and free face painting. Last year we added an Apple Pie Eating Contest and this year we have a new Chili Cook-Off and 2 Car Shows. We're already working on ideas for next year and welcome your suggestions to help keep this fund-raiser successful.
