Today's Program

Looks like we will be hearing about the Apple Harvest Arts & Crafts Festival coming up this weekend.

Last Week's Program - a two-fer!

President Marc introduced Darla McCrary, who introduced Joe Shtulman, who introduced Bryan Grigsby, who introduced a video about this year's United Way Campaign.

Then, Doug Thomas discussed "The Strategy of War", giving us a unique view of war and battles from the strategic perspective, rather than the historic "mechanical" point of view. There are always lessons to be learned from the past, as we move forward. The one certainty is that we must stand tall and be proud, because our principles are paramount. Thanks, Doug.

Golf Tournament!

This year's tournament is on Monday, October 3, a few short weeks away! Sponsors and 4-somes are still needed! Contact Erik Beatley, Don Louque or anyone on the golf tournament committee for more info.

HAVE YOU SIGNED UP?

The 37th Annual Rotary Arts and Crafts Festival is this weekend! This event is considered all hands on deck. Every club member should help out in some way -- WE STILL NEED A FEW PEOPLE TO WORK AT THE PARKING, GATE AREAS and the APPLE THEME BOOTH -- contact Bill Hottel at 662-1683 or sign up on the sheets being passed around at the meetings.

This year features two car shows and the 2nd Annual White House Apple Pie Eating Contest. The hoped for Chili Cook-Off was canceled due to lack of Chili Chefs.

An estimated 6,000 people attend this event with over 100 vendors. Last year, we raised over $20,000 for local charities.

Health Report

Welcome back, Jim Stillwell. Libba Pendleton's Healthy Health Tip of the Week: When life gives you potatoes, use them as tools of isometric resistance. Put on your tennis shoes, and hold 2-5 pounds of potatoes out straight for 10 minutes. When you have mastered that task, add more potatoes as you dare! Next balance a turkey on your head, and tie green beans around your neck and you will be in perfect form for thanksgiving!

New Member!

Our newest member is Sharon Farenholtz. Sharon's sponsors are Dan Martin and Phil Griffin, Jr. Please take a moment to welcome Sharon and get her signed up for some committees!

A RETIREMENT STORY....

An older man goes every day to his favorite fishing location and sits on the bank of a secluded large lake catching nice fish which he takes home to his wife to prepare for dinner.

One day he is approached by a younger well-dressed business man. The young man tells the older fisherman, that he has watched him from afar for years as he trudged in and out the lake access trail. He sees the fisherman come to the lake every morning, he sits for several hours and nearly always returns with a catch. The younger man asks the fisherman if he has a job. The fisherman says, "This is my job". My wife is a great cook in our town. I bring home a few fish and she prepares them for us or trades a tempting fish dinner for other meals that others in our town prepare. The young man nods his head, indicating he understands, but suggests that the older man might consider a loan to buy a boat to catch even more fish. What would I do with a boat load of fish, snickers the old man. Well, you could keep a few and sell the rest to others in the town. With the additional income, you could hire a local fisherman to work for you on your boat. After some time, you would likely be able to buy a second boat, and a third and eventually you would have a fleet of boats all fishing for you. Before long you would have lots of money. What would I do with lots of money, laughed the old man? Oh my, you could retire and never have to work again. Well that is appealing to never have to work again; I could take time and do all the things I like. "There you go", cheered the young man, "what do you like to do", he asked? "I really like to fish" said the older man... "I guess I could sit on this bank and fish every day, if I retired...."
