Today's Program

Another 2-Part program...Trish Ridgeway will give us an update on Handley Library activities.... AND we will also be presenting Paul Harris Awards.

Last Week's Program

Rick Bragga from Boy Scouts (this year's Kaleidoscope beneficiary) talked about the newest and 4th wonder of the high adventure world in scouting, the Summit Bechtel Family National Scout Reserve at New River Gorge, West Virginia! He also quizzed us on some Boy Scout trivia, failing many of us. Did you know that older girls can join the Boy Scout Adventure group? Did you know that many Life Scouts failed to obtain their Eagle rank because of an encounter with the "fumes" - - locker room fumes, car fumes and /or perfumes. Did you know the highest honor that can be awarded is the Honor Medal with Crossed Palms? Most of us said the Silver Beaver Award.....Did you know that Boy Scouts and Rotary have enjoyed a long and productive partnership? In 1918, Rotary was the first civic group to sponsor a Boy Scout troop. Did you know that the Shenandoah Area Council has over 5,000 scouts, 1,800 adult leaders and 11 paid staff? In 2013, Boy Scouts from around the country will head to their new home in West Virginia for their Jamboree and in 2014 the high adventure camps begin. This new home for Boy Scouts is thanks to the donation of over 10,000 acres of land by the Bechtel Family. Exciting times ahead for scouting.....

Kaleidoscope

It's over till next year...if you didn't attend, you missed a great opportunity to win $25,000 CASH! Jenny Brockwell reports:

It was a night of wining, dining, and winning on Saturday night at the 11th Annual Kaleidoscope Gala, benefitting the Shenandoah Area Council of the Boy Scouts of America.

About 300 people packed the Shenandoah Valley Golf Club, with hopes of hopping in the cash machine, taking home a great silent auction item, winning the 50/50, and most of all—winning the $25,000 CASH GRAND PRIZE. One thing was certain: someone there would win that night. But who? And would they split it? The suspense! The drama! It was almost too much to handle.

As MC Nick Nerangis predicted, he pulled the last few ticket numbers just shy of 10 pm. The final lucky two remaining? Rotarian Ernie Carnavale and Jason Hester – who coincidentally won half the grand prize a few years ago. The two felt they had tested their luck long enough and decided to split the $25,000 right down the middle, each taking home $12,500.

After the last scotch was drank and silent auction item paid for, the 11th Annual Kaleidoscope Gala was a great success! A check will be presented to the Boy Scouts at a later date.

Rummage Sale

June 9th is the date... the old Armory on Millwood Avenue is the place. NOW is the time to gather together those seldom used/never used items that are just taking up space in your home, garage, basement, or business and take them to our collection trailer at Frogale Lumber (Route 50 East of Winchester). You'll help out the Fremont Street Nursery & Winchester Day Nursery, and you'll enjoy all that extra space in your home. For those larger items, you can give Marie DiLorenzo, Dan Martin or Rob Frogale a call and they will arrange a pick up.

A Garden on the Move

Thanks to Carl Thomas, his crew of employees, several Rotarians and Shenandoah University students, the NW Works clients and their garden have been reunited. Several years ago our club planted a garden for the clients at NW Works and it became a special peaceful place for them to visit during the day. Wednesday we helped relocate the garden to its new home off Shawnee Drive (the old Melnor building). Thanks to all who volunteered.

Last Week's Drawing

Bob DeMott's wife Darline was the winner of $19 and came close to winning the jackpot – just missed it by one card when she drew the 2 of spades. This week the jackpot will start at $200.

This Month's Rubbermaid Sale

Joe Shtulman reports that the United Way Rubbermaid Product Sale will be held THIS SATURDAY, from 8am-noon, at the Belk parking lot in Apple Blossom Mall and will benefit NW Works. For additional information contact the United Way of Northern Shenandoah Valley at 540-536-1610 or uway@visuallink.com.

 Darleen DeMott guest of her husband Bob
 Terry Williams guest of Tim Roberts
 Andrew Beck guest of Byron Brill

Haiti Service Project

Two weeks ago, Molly Farinholt and Marissa Maddalena of the James Wood High School Interact Club made a brief presentation to our club about their Haiti Service Project. These two students are working to raise $15,000 to fund the construction of three houses in Haiti for earthquake victims. They need our support to make their goal. Please send checks to James Wood High School Interact Club, 161 Apple Pie Ridge Road, Winchester 22603.

Rotary Foundation Minute

Last week's minute was more like 30 seconds but Bill Huehn told us to look on our next Rotary statement for the number of our Foundation points. These points can be saved, transferred to another member or if enough, used to purchase a Paul Harris Fellow.

Libba's Health Tip of the Week

Libba told us that our own whale watcher Bob DeMott is back following surgery for an injury incurred at his last whale watching expedition. If you want to hear a great "fish story" ask Bob about this trip.

Jean Barch is in the hospital and Kelly Rickert continues to recover from a skiing accident. Following this health report Libba started off her health care tip with encouraging us to stay safe at home as a couch potato. She also had two tips for us: first if we eat at a fast food restaurant, pick the most expensive items on the menu like grilled chicken Caesar salad. And two, eat colorful food – the more colorful your food, the better it is for you.
