Dec. 20 - Annual Christmas Program
Dec. 27 - No Meeting - Have a Happy New Year!
Jan. 24 - Board Meeting at GW Hotel, 6 PM

Today's Program

We welcome our friends from the Evans Home for our annual Christmas program. Say hello to your nearest special guest, enjoy Don Jones's perennial recitation of the Christmas story, and let the wrapping paper fly!

Last Week

Our program was presented by the Interact Clubs at James Wood High School (left) and Handley High School (below). Both clubs are very active in the community, working not only on fund-raising programs, but also helping with staffing for special programs, community events, etc. Both clubs also reported on their recent participation at the recent RYLA leadership retreat held at Virginia Tech. It is great to see these future community leaders taking on responsibility for helping to improve the world, both on a local and a global level.

Foundation Minute

With all of the troubling news coming out of Egypt, it's nice to know that the Rotary Foundation is doing its part for that country's children. The Cairo Children's Hospital treats 1 million kids a year, and the Rotary Foundation has provided new NICU equipment. Local Rotarians also provide training and give classes to staff so that they are able to use the equipment for the best of care to the kids.

Congratulations to:

Sharon Farenholt, the proud new owner of a granddaughter!

Election Results

What???? A tie vote for our Board Members? You really will get to vote often (at least twice) in our officer and board election. The new slate of officers was confirmed, but there were only 2 clear winners for the Board Vote: Julia Connell and Steve Slaughter. The remaining nominees were tied, so a run-off vote will be held today. Ballots are on the table.

Join the Color Scheme at Kaleidoscope 2013

The Kaleidoscope Program Advertising Committee needs a couple more people to assist with ad prospects. Contact Kit Molden or Anthony Crosen to help with this important fundraiser. If you have something special you can offer for the Silent Auction, contact Ken Rice.

Health Report

Sue Rich is doing well and recuperating at “Chez Bro,” (her brother’s house) in Raleigh. She says the food is great and the supervision is lax. She says her only frustrations with recovery are “managing the pill circus” and getting her body off of “hospital sleep time” - 2 hours asleep, 3 hours awake. She says thanks for the countless cards and notes!

Libba’s Health Tip: If you must drink during the holidays (and who musn’t??), these are some healthy choices:

- 1) spiced cider (spiked or not) with cinnamon: The spices, and particularly cinnamon, help keep your metabolism high;
- 2) red wine sangria: we all know the benefits of red wine, and with the added fruit in sangria, you get a little fiber as well;
- 3) eggnog: forget the calories and consider all of the calcium and protein provided by the milk and eggs
- 4) cranberry cocktail: high in vitamin c and antioxidants.

Drawing

Karey Starne, a visiting Rotarian from the Baileys Crossroads club, won $17 bucks but drew the 3 of hearts so didn’t take home the jackpot, which was a whopping $13. The big payoff should be at least double that today. Don’t spend it all in one place.
