KEG PARTY - TONIGHT!

Rotary Rummage Sale - Keep those treasures coming!

David Kent announced that the official move-in day for our annual rummage sale is May 25th. If you can spare an hour or two to help get rummage from the trailers where it is now being stored into the Armory Building at Shenandoah University, please sign up.

Paying It Forward

New club member Brandon Thomas, who runs the Winchester Rescue Mission, made a donation to Paul Burkholder's favorite charity, the Shenandoah Valley Scholars Latino Initiative, which makes it possible for Latino students to get their degree and become tax-paying citizens. The gift was part of the Rescue Mission's practice of donating a portion of their donations to other needy community groups. As Brandon says, we should all be working together to solve the community's needs and what better way than to tithes his organization's donations.

Our Program Last Week

Last Week - We had a twofer at last week's meeting with the James Wood Interact Club providing a presentation on their many projects to benefit the community, and new member Jonathan Reimer getting us up to speed on how he got to our club.

The James Wood Interact Club has had a busy school year helping needy folks of all stripes, including providing gift bags for the homeless, writing to 5th grade pen pals, and promoting school-based events to encourage more participation among their classmates. They also adopted three local families for Christmas and volunteered at Bright Futures to pack food for needy students.

Jonathan Reimer emigrated from Northern Virginia

as he and his wife of 10 years, Shelly, were looking for somewhere to raise their kids. He has a background in banking and finance and is already active in Habitat for Humanity and the Discovery Museum. He looks forward to serving others through Rotary – be sure to reach out and say hello.

Welcome Newest Member

Our club inducted its newest member, James Imoh, at last week's meeting. Paul says he's the latest service veteran to join our club. Please say hello and wish him well.

Fond Farewell - our club bid a fond adieu to server Pam, who has worked tirelessly to meet our lunchtime needs ever since we moved to the Winchester Country Club. We sent her off with a tribute gift and our best wishes for her retirement.

Thanks for the Helping Hands

On behalf of Dan Martin, thanks to everyone who participated in last Saturday's Hands Against Hunger event at Sherando High School. More than 20,000 meals were packed and will be sent overseas to feed children who otherwise wouldn't get nourishment or a day at school.

Apple Blossom Queens Dinner - Next Week

There will be NO NOON MEETING next week but, The Village At Orchard Ridge Queen's Dinner is Thursday, 5-8 pm. Attending this event counts as a make-up. Tickets are buy-one, get-one-free and cost $35....see Don Louque or Dee Dee Barbour.

Little Theatre Night - May 9th

Marie Dilorenzo reminded us that this year's Winchester Little Theater Night will include dinner at Oakcrest Builders. Look for the sign up sheet at today's meeting. This event usually sells out quickly. This year's play will be a female version of The Odd Couple.

HEALTH REPORT

Libba reported that Jean Barch's mother-in-law is ill and Jean is out west supporting her.

Sadly, Darla McCrary's father passed away last week. Please keep both of them in your thoughts and prayers.

LIBBA'S HEALTH TIP

Libba told us all about Garlic Day, which was last Friday, and sang its praises, which dates back to the ancient Olympians. When it is crushed or pressed, the chemical Allicin is released and has lots of health benefits: it can help end a cold, lower your blood pressure, reduce dementia, and even reduce bone loss. If you are worried about the effects of eating garlic on your breath, she suggests chewing parsley or drinking milk or eating yogurt.

Last Week's Drawing

Terry Tierney won $11, but missed his dream of life-long riches by drawing the 2 of Spades. This week's jackpot is up to $154.

The Blunt Facts

Don Butler promoted an event that will take place at Winchester Country Club on May 16th. Blunt facts is an informative presentation on the effects of legalized marijuana in Colorado and the implications for our own State. See Don for more details or to be a sponsor.
